Read the passage below and answer the following question.

Electronic sports (known as eSports) are being considered for inclusion in the summer Olympic games, starting in 2024. The idea was suggested by Tony Estanguet, who is copresident of the Paris Olympic bid committee. Paris will host the summer games in 2024. Mr Estanguet says he will speak with the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and eSports representatives about introducing competitive video gaming to the Olympics for the first time.

The 2024 Olympics programme will start to be decided in 2019, with a final decision on what sports are to be included taken after the 2020 Games in Tokyo are over. It has already been confirmed that eSports will be a medal sport at the 2022 Asian Games in China. The Asian Games are the world's second biggest multi-sport event after the Olympics.
